Oktoberfest: Munich, Germany

Head to Munich, Germany this fall for the 200th Annual Oktoberfest! The celebration begins with an opening ceremony at noon when the first keg is tapped by the Mayor of Munich. Join in Bavarian tradition and yell "O'zapft is!", "It's tapped."

When: September 18 through October 3
Where: Theresienwiese (Meadow of Therese)
What: Oktoberfest 2010— 19 Big Tents, 14 Small Tents

While you're there, take a tour of Germany and visit some of the unique towns and villages:

Monschau

A magnificent little village near the Belgian border, with timber-framed homes along the River Rur— which makes it look like the "Amsterdam" of Germany.

Mittenwald

Celebrated as the most beautiful town in the Bavarian Alps, its beautifully decorated homes have painted facades and ornately carved gables.

Tegernsee

A lovely town sitting on Lake Tegernsee with an Alpine landscape, the lake and its surrounding mountains make it the perfect tranquil retreat. It is located just south of Munich.

Oberammergau

This beautiful village is best known for the production of the Passion Play, wood carvings and the painted facades of its buildings.

Rothenburg ob der Tauber

The most picturesque city along the "Romantic Road," it is completely surrounded by an original medieval wall, and its streets have not changed in hundreds of years.

Zell

A charming little wine-making village along the Mosel River.

Bernkastel

A delightful town full of half-timbered homes located in the wine-growing region of the Mosel Valley.

Beilstein

A very quaint, well-preserved village with narrow lanes, lying along the banks of the Mosel River.

Trier

Founded in 16 B.C., Germany's oldest town is filled with stunning Roman ruins.

Key Reasons Clients Rely on CUI!

With friends in town, a client called your CUI concierge looking for a great spot to relax and have a cocktail with a great view of the city. Your CUI concierge was able to quickly secure a table for four at the exclusive, high-demand, no reservations Roof at the Wit! The client was ecstatic and his visitors were treated to a great Chicago experience. Don't hesitate to let CUI be the most valuable amenity in your professional and personal life!

Last minute miracles are always possible when you leave it to your CUI concierge! A client needed to throw a last minute surprise party for a colleague the following day. She wanted it to be a two-part party: an afternoon private boat charter for 25 people, and then Mexican cuisine and drinks for 100 people afterwards. This tall order was no problem for your concierge, who reached out to CUI's network of contacts to successfully secure all the arrangements for a great event!
